

Youth Justice
Community
Support
Service

Youth Justice
Community Support
Services assists clients across Gippsland to complete their Youth Justice Order, connect into community and pro-social activities.

A decorative arc at the top of the page, transitioning from blue on the left to orange on the right.

Support can include access to mainstream services including education, employment, health, counselling, housing, multicultural, youth specific and recreation.

Who is this program for?

Young people aged 12 to 21 on a Youth Justice Order. A Youth Justice Case Manager assesses the suitability of a young person to be referred to Youth Justice Community Support Service.

Support Provided:

Holistic case-management

Support provided to comply with Youth Justice requirements

Client centred and individualised approach

Advocacy and Support to ensure young persons voices are heard

Individual support and assistance to address issues impacting on the young person's transition to independent living and support to maintain tenancy

Assistance to obtain identification, Medicare card etc.

Support to access Centrelink and manage finances

Linkages provided to education, training or employment

Information and Referrals

Support provided to access pro-social activities and community activities

Assistance to improve family and peer relationships and access counselling as required

Support to access health care services

Referral Pathways

Eligible Young people will be determined by Department of Justice and Community Safety—Youth Justice.

The Department of Justice and Regulation—Youth Justice will raise referrals with Quantum for appropriate assessment.

After Hours Support

Youth Justice Community Support Services also provides after hours support as determined by the Department of Justice and Community Safety—Youth Justice.

Support is provided to assist young people to ensure they meet the conditions of their order.

Support is provided after hours to assist young people to participate in pro-social sporting/ community activities and promote family and peer connections.

Support can include: cooking, cleaning, budgeting and practical assistance to improve living skills.

After hours can include transport assistance to meet the young persons aspirations and goals and assist families to visit young people in custody.

Call 1800 243 255 for an assessment and further information on program dates and locations

We care for Gippslanders

For all information regarding our services and locations please don't hesitate to contact us on:

Morwell

227 Princes Drive

Sale

65 Macalister Street

Warragul

36 Williams Street

Bairnsdale

306 Main Street

Call 1800 243 455

quantum.org.au

Email: youth.intake@quantum.org.au

Quantum Support Services acknowledges the support of the Victorian Government

Quantum Support
Services is a Child
Safe Organisation

