

Supporting Families At Risk Of Homelessness
(SFAR)

The SFAR program aims to break the cycle of homelessness and transience, through intensive and individualised support for each member of the family.

Quantum believes the celebration of diversity makes us and the community stronger. We are committed to embracing everyone's individual differences so that we can help create a strong workplace and community that is empowered to reach its potential. We celebrate diversity of gender, sexuality and spiritual or religious belief along with all cultural backgrounds including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. Quantum recognises that we all have diverse life experiences that may be influenced by age, ability, social and financial status. Quantum support everyone's right to feel respected, safe, welcome and valued.

This program aims to support families with additional needs who require longer-term support to successfully access, establish and maintain a public or social housing tenancy or private rental accommodation. The program helps prevent families from falling back into homelessness.

Supporting Families at Risk of Homelessness (SFAR)

SFAR works with families to:

Increase community engagement

Increasing living skills

Establishing a budget

Providing support when children or adolescents display difficult behaviours

Advocates for the family in a variety of circumstances

SFAR aims to reduce the likelihood of Child Protection intervention by addressing protective concerns and linking families with relevant services and supports.

The SFAR program assists families to identify individual goals and then works with a strengths based approach to achieve positive outcomes for families.

SFAR links families with community supports and programs such as:

Scouts

Football/Basketball

Swimming

Music/Dance lessons

After school/Day care

School/TAFE/University

Financial counselling

AOD counselling

Mental Health services

Kid's Undercover

SFAR is available to families that have a history of transience, have recently experienced homelessness (within the last six months) and have had a Child Protection history. Families who work with SFAR are generally involved with the program for 12 months.

SFAR services are provided in the Baw Baw and Latrobe Shires.
