Quantum believes the celebration of diversity makes us and the community stronger. We are committed to embracing everyone's individual differences so that we can help create a strong workplace and community that is empowered to reach its potential. We celebrate diversity of gender, sexuality and spiritual or religious belief along with all cultural backgrounds including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. Quantum recognises that we all have diverse life experiences that may be influenced by age, ability, social and financial status. Quantum supports everyone's right to feel respected, safe, welcome and valued.

The Youth Residential Building (YRB) operates as a 24 hour crisis centre, providing short-term emergency accommodation, information and support to young people who are experiencing homelessness or are at risk of homelessness

About the Youth Residential Building

The YRB provides up to six weeks crisis accommodation.

It has six self-contained units, four are single bedroom and two are twin bedroom. Each unit has its own lounge, kitchen and bathroom. There are also shared kitchen, living, dining and laundry areas for residents.

This program is voluntary and requires ongoing, active participation from the young person.
