Quantum believes the celebration of diversity makes us and the community stronger. We are committed to embracing everyone's individual differences so that we can help create a strong workplace and community that is empowered to reach its potential. We celebrate diversity of gender, sexuality and spiritual or religious belief along with all cultural backgrounds including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. Quantum recognises that we all have diverse life experiences that may be influenced by age, ability, social and financial status. Quantum supports everyone's right to feel respected, safe, welcome and valued.

The Young Focused
Housing Pathways
program provides brief intervention case work to young people

About the program

The YFHP program provides six weeks of intervention case work to young people who are:

First time homeless and not already receiving services from the homelessness service system

Young people who may be at risk of homelessness, and able to benefit from a youth-specific early intervention to halt any progression into the homelessness service system

This program is voluntary and requires ongoing, active participation from the young person.

Eligibility

A young person aged 16 to 25 years who are experiencing homelessness or, are at risk of homelessness residing in Latrobe City.

The YFHP program is supported by Creating Connections, a program which aims to provide case management support to young people experiencing homelessness or who are at risk of homelessness, to secure independent living options, enhance living skills capacity and connection to community

What we provide:

Support to secure or maintain accommodation options

Assistance to develop life and living skills

Support to secure income, employment, education and identification

Secondary consult and referrals

Basic family mediation and support

Support with linkages to community

What we don't provide:

Immediate access to housing

Crisis emergency relief
